The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

LONDON, November 7.

THE preſent Miniſtry are reſolved to keep their Ground, and not to quit it through Timidity, or Irreſolution, or Reſignation.

An Evening Paper ſays, that a great Perſonage talking a few Days ago to a Knight, who has the Direction of the new-paving of the Streets, paid him a Compliment upon that Subject, ſaying, that the State-Coach rolled ſmoothly over the new Pavement to the Parliament-houſe. The Knight ſaid, that he wiſhed his M------ had a new P-------- H----, as well as a new Pavement leading to it, for that at preſent it was not ſuitable to the Grandeur of this Nation. The great Perſonage replied, I have no Objection to a new P------- H----, but I am determined to keep the old Furniture.

It is ſaid, that a great Perſonage has ſignified, that he could wiſh the Seals to remain in the Poſſeſſion of the preſent Lord Chancellor.

We hear, that the celebrated Dr. Lucas, the Iriſh Patriot, is ſhortly expected in London from Dublin, in order to lay a Complaint of an extraordinary Nature before his Majeſty.

At a Meeting of thoſe, who call themſelves the Friends of Liberty, at Newcaſtle, in order to conſider upon a Petition to his Majeſty, Sir Walter Blacket ſpoke with great Ability and Perſpicuity againſt the Meaſure. He concluded his Speech with declaring, "That he would ſooner cut off his Right Hand, than ſign a Requeſt to the K--- to interfere with the Reſolutions of the Commons of England.

Nov. 9. Some private Letters from Berlin mention as a Rumour there, that the King had determined to join the Ruſſians, in caſe the Houſe of Auſtria ſhould attempt to oppoſe the Court of Peterſburgh in the preſent War againſt the Turks.

Extract of a Letter from Leghorn, October 20.

"Mr. Dick, and Mr. Udney, Engliſh Conſuls, the one in this City, and the other at Venice, have received Orders from their Court to cauſe all the Ships of their Nation to obſerve a perfect Neutrality in the War between Ruſſia and the Ottoman Porte."

Advice is ſaid to be received, that when the laſt Expreſs arrived at Smyrna from Conſtantinople, the Banner of Mahomet had been diſplayed from the Top of the Tower of the Grand Signor's Seraglio, which was never done but in the moſt dangerous Inſurrections.

Nov. 11. It is computed there are now upwards of 400 Sail of Ships in the River to be ſold, which uſed to be employed in the North-American Trade before the late Taxation of the Colonies.

Nov. 14. Letters by the French Mails of Yeſterday, mention an Embargo being laid on all Engliſh Ships in the Dominion of Turkey.

Nov. 16. The Coolneſs which has for ſome Time ſubſiſted between Portugal and Spain, we are informed by Letters from Madrid, daily increaſes.

Mr. Peters applying to Dr. Hill, in a Caſe of the Gravel, was directed to boil Burdock Root, and cured by that ſimple Medicine. Upon aſking the Doctor what Recompence he ſhould make him, he replied, "Tell others who have that Sort of Gravel, how eaſily they may be cured."

Nov. 18. We are informed that the Lord Mayor received a Letter on Wedneſday, from E----d C------m, wherein he teſtifies his Approbation of the Choice of the Livery of ſo worthy and patriotic a Gentleman to be their Mayor, and at the ſame Time his utter Deteſtation of the Proceedings of the M-----y in the Middleſex Election.

Yeſterday Major Rogers, Governor of Mechillimakinac, lately arrived from North America, was preſented to his Majeſty at St. James's, and had the Honour to kiſs the King's Hand.

It is reported, that the E-- of C---- has ſignified, that he will make a Motion in a certain Aſſembly, in order to know the Senſe of that Body, with Reſpect to the ſeveral Petitions preſented to his Majeſty.

By Accounts, which arrived Yeſterday from Conſtantinople, the Turks pretend, that ſince the 12th of Auguſt, when the new Grand Vizir paſſed the Neiſter, he had obtained ſeveral Advantages over the Ruſſians; and on the 2d of September, the Kan of Tartary, with ſome Pachas, at the Head of 40,000 Men, defeated 20,000 Ruſſians, near Kaminiec, from whom they took moſt of their Artillery, 400 Baggage Waggons, made 500 Priſoners, and left 19,000 Men killed and wounded on the Field of Battle.

The late Grand Vizir's Effects have been confiſcated for the Uſe of the Grand Signor, and are valued at thirty-ſix Millions of Piaſtres.

Nov. 21. When a popular Magiſtrate, lately elected, attended, according to annual Cuſtom, the Levee of a great Perſonage, the great Perſon ſaid to him, "So Mr. B. are you juſt come from Fonthill?" To which the popular Magiſtrate made a low Bow, and was about to reply, when the great Perſon turned ſhort, and ſpoke to ſomebody elſe.

We hear, that a great Perſonage, on whoſe Determination the preſent political Safety of this Country depends, has nobly declared, that, as a Briton, he would ſtrenuouſly oppoſe the diſſolving of a certain Houſe; but that, as a ----, he will ever ſupport the Guardians of Britiſh Liberty, in the Poſſeſſion of their conſtitutional Rights.----How ſenſibly muſt this Declaration affect every ſincere Lover of his Country! What a Bleſſing it is to a free People, that their S--------n is more deſirous of protecting their Liberties, than ready to avail himſelf of their Prejudices, to extend, by exerting, his Prerogative!

Extract of a Letter from Genoa, dated Oct. 25.

"This Republic is making great Preparations for a War with Sardinia, of which, it is ſuppoſed, the reſt of the European Powers will not ſtand idle Spectators. France, it is affirmed, will not ſuffer the Genoeſe Territories to be invaded with Impunity. The Walls of the City are now repairing, and a new Fort is building in the Harbour, which is a very commodious one, and contains one of the fineſt Moles in the World. The Military Eſtabliſhment here is but very indifferent, but it is daily augmenting; and as the preſent Doge is indefatigable in his Attention to Buſineſs, and a Man of abilities, it is thought the Army of this little State will ſoon be in a reſpectable Condition. Mr. D----, who is juſt come from Turin, aſſured me Yeſterday, that the King of Sardinia had determined to give Encouragement to all Corſicans, who were inclined to enter into his Service, and form a Brigade of thoſe brave Iſlanders alone, who are natural inveterate Enemies to this Republic."

They write from Gibraltar, that a conſiderable naval Force is now fitting out at Cagliari, the Capital of Sardinia.

By Letters from the Sound we hear, that the Fleet under the Command of Rear Admiral Elphinſton, is chiefly manned, both Men and Officers, with Engliſh and Scotch. The Flag Ship carries 80 Guns, and out of 800 Hands, has but 150 Ruſſians on board.

All perſons indebted to the eſtate of John Baily, are hereby deſired to make immediate payment to the Aſſignees; otherwiſe the accounts will be put into an attorney's hands, there being a neceſſity of ſettling the ſaid Baily's affairs.

To be SOLD, by public VENDUE,

At the London Coffee-Houſe, on Wedneſday, the 21ſt of this inſtant March, at Twelve o' clock in the forenoon,

A VALUABLE plantation, or tract of land, well known by the name of the Yellow Springs, ſituate in Pikeland townſhip, Cheſter county, about 30 miles from Philadelphia, containing 150 acres, one half or more cleared, the other well timbered, and the whole well watered, by never failing ſtreams; about 20 acres of watered meadow, and more may be made; having thereon erected a good ſtone dwelling-houſe, 2 ſtories high, 57 feet front, and 36 in depth, a fine piazza in the front, the whole breadth of the houſe, 8 or 9 feet wide, good cellars and chambers, kitchen, barn, ſtables, and other out-houſes. At a ſmall diſtance from the abovementioned dwelling-houſe, is a good new log-houſe, weather-boarded and painted, well finiſhed, with ſaſh windows, about 35 feet front, and 18 deep, two ſtories high; and adjoining ſaid building is another good log-houſe, about 18 feet ſquare, which has been occupied as a ſtore for ſome time, having a good ſpring and milk-houſe, oven, and other conveniencies very handy, with a garden paled in.

The medicinal virtues of the ſprings, on the above plantation, for the cure of many diſorders inwardly and outwardly, are ſo well known to the public, that it is thought unneceſſary to mention them here. There are three bathing ſprings, which can be emptied or filled in a very little time, by opening or ſhutting a ſluice; two of them are incloſed by good new frame houſes, 35 feet front, and 16 feet deep. Each bath has a drawing room, and one a fire-place in it; the buildings are neat, and make an elegant appearance, having glaſs windows front and back, and walks, with rows of ſhady trees, up to the dwelling-houſe.

The dwelling-houſe, on ſaid plantation, is now uſed as a public houſe, and is ſo well accuſtomed as to have from 100 to 500 people daily, for the ſummer ſeaſon, beſides the unhealthy and infirm that come from all parts, and take lodgings for weeks together, for the benefit of the waters. On the premiſes is alſo erected a ſaw-mill, double geered, almoſt new; and a griſt-mill may be very conveniently made, there being plenty of water, about 27 feet head and fall; now in the tenure of George Maxton.---Twenty-five acres of wheat, on the above plantation, will be ſold ſeparately.

At the ſame time will be ſold, a ſmall tract of 12 acres of land, adjoining the abovementioned plantation, moſtly meadow, on which is erected a good log-houſe, 18 feet ſquare, alſo a good new blackſmith's ſhop, and now tenanted.

Alſo another plantation, or tract of land, ſituate in Pikeland townſhip, Cheſter county, about 28 miles from Philadelphia, on the road leading to the Yellow Springs, containing about 177 acres, near one half of which is cleared, about 15 acres thereof being meadow, and much more may be eaſily made; the other part is well timbered, and the whole watered with never failing ſtreams; thereon is erected a good dwelling-houſe, with barns, ſtable, and other out-houſes. This place is much clearer of ſtones than moſt of the lands in the neighbourhood, and has a good bearing orchard. The title and conditions will be made known on the day of ſale, by JOHN RHEA, CHARLES MEREDITH, GEORGE MEADE, WILLIAM CRAIG, JOHN WILCOCKS, and SAMUEL C. MORRIS, Aſſignees.

TO BE SOLD,

A LOT of LAND, containing about 16 acres, ſituated in Houghton, Springfield townſhip, and county of Burlington, on which is a neat dwelling-houſe, lately finiſhed and painted, with a new paled garden, ſtables, and good orchard. Alſo on the ſame lot one other dwelling-houſe, lately fitted up for a ſtore, with a good pork-houſe, ſmoak-houſe, and other out-houſes, conveniently ſituated for trade, or would ſuit a gentleman, inclining to a retir'd life, its ſituation being pleaſant, healthy, and in a good neighbourhood. Alſo in view of, and nearly contiguous to the abovementioned lot, a plantation, containing about 75 acres of land, about 50 whereof are cleared, 12 of which are good meadow, the reſt paſture, and arable land; with a dwelling-houſe, barn, and young orchard thereon. For terms enquire of WILLIAM DILLWYN, on the premiſes Tbc 6 w.

Messieurs HALL and SELLERS,

Your inserting the following Answer to a Piece published in your Gazette, No. 2147, will greatly oblige your constant Customer and Friend, A. C.

THE Navigation being so far obstructed, that the above Gazette came too late, to animadvert on a very extraordinary Essay, which appears in No. 2147, signed, A Lover of Improvement, and a Pennsylvanian, I thought it therefore my Duty to embrace this Opportunity. This Refiner in Improvements, for the Good of his Country, has proposed a Scheme for the Amendment of old Roads, and making new Roads; in which Scheme, he has been pleased to charge the Shallop-men, belonging to the "Landings on Christiana, such as the Bridge, Newport, and Wilmington, in New-Castle County, with being unworthy of "Trust; in one of which said Places, many of the Inhabitants "of Pennsylvania have suffered Loss, by entrusting said Shallop-men with the Produce of their Labour, to be transported to "Philadelphia, several of which, he is well satisfied, would not "trust them again," if his Schemes took Effect. He also asserts, "that when the Pennsylvania Farmers bring the Produce of their "Country down to said Landings, they sell it under Price, for "Fear of trusting it in the Hands of the Shallop-men to sell for "them; and when that is done, the Farmer must wait several "Weeks, at Times, for a Return, and it must be in Money, and "when got, perhaps lay it out for Goods at second Hand." This Author has pursued a very disingenuous Method of causing his Scheme for the Public-good to obtain, by interspersing therein, a Number of groundless Falshoods, and severe Calumnies against a Body of honest, useful and industrious Men in Society, which he stupidly imagines will give Credit to the futile Measures he has devised among weak People, or Persons on a Level with his own Understanding. It is well known to be an undoubted Truth, that the said Shallop-men generally sell the Produce brought by the Back-waggons at least Three Pence per Hundred more, than that which is carried to Philadelphia in such Waggons; how then does the Farmer suffer, and how will Philadelphia be profited, by expending an immense Sum of Money, on Account of said Roads; besides establishing a perpetual Tax, by Way of Turnpike, on the Inhabitants, in their present distressed Situation? It is also unquestionably true, that the Shallopmens Back-freight for Goods purchased in Philadelphia, agreeable to the Farmer's Orders, is far less than what stands them in for Goods they buy in Philadelphia to be carried in their Waggons. I now call on this Lover of Improvement to point out these dishoneſt Shallop-men he squints at, and come from behind his Ambush, and sign his Name to such Performance; he hath no Need to be afraid of speaking the Truth, especially in his Country's Cause, who hath Truth and Justice for the Foundation of his Assertions. But it seems, there is not a Trust-worthy Person belonging to said Landings, according to our Essayist's Opinion; which causes me to believe, that he is a real Lover of Improvement, especially of Lies: I can assure him, the Shallop-mens Integrity is too well established, and their Courage too invincible, to be terrified with the Howlings of any dull heavy Politician, or gloomy Detractor. Numberless are the Instances in History, of many pretended Patriots exhibiting specious Schemes for the Good of the Common Wealth; when, by fatal Experience, their real Motives have proved to arise from a View, either to their private Interests, to satisfy their Ambition, gratify their Malice, or to carry some favourite Point. If it was worth the Attention of the Public, I could very readily show, what an uncommon Composition of Slander, Ignorance and Vanity, appear in this whole Essay. He has condescended at last, to submit his Scheme, relative to the Roads, Slander and all, to wiser Heads to determine; but I should entertain a very mean Opinion of the Wisdom or Virtue of those Heads, who would busy themselves either with him, or his Schemes.

Newport, on Christiana, Feb. 23, 1770. An Inhabitant of Newport, and A Lover of Truth.

LONDON, November 23.

ON Monday the Court of Directors of the East-India Company received Advices by the Essex East-Indiaman, dated the 13th of May last, that a Peace is concluded between the Governor and Council of Madrass and Hyder Ally. The following are the Particulars of the Treaty:

The Forts and Places taken from each other to be restored: Each to bear the Expence they have been at. A perpetual League offensive and defensive, and the Prices of Troops hired in such Cases stipulated. A mutual Exchange and Releasement of Prisoners. And a Freedom of Trade both in the Mycore Country, and the Carnatic.

In Consequence of the above Account, the Price of India Stock has risen two per Cent.

A Morning Paper says, the Court of Versailles has publicly intimated to the Russian Ambassador, residing at the Court of Great Britain, his Majesty's Intentions of opposing any Russian Conquests in the Mediterranean.

Yesterday a Motion was made in the Court of King's Bench, to enlarge the Imprisonment of Mr. Bingley, and that he might have the Benefit of the Rules; but the Court were of Opinion, that it could not be granted, as no Precedent could be found in such a Case.

By the Suppression of the religious Houses in France, it is well known the Court of France will avail itself of a clear yearly additional Revenue of 130,000,000 Livres, which amount to 6,000,000 l. sterling.

Some Letters from Gibraltar say, a Report prevails there, that the Dey of Algiers, having been made acquainted with the Naval Strength of the Danes, and that there was no trifling with a Monarch of his Majesty's Disposition, was very desirous of concluding a Peace with that Nation.

Nov. 25. From a great Office in Cleveland-row, we are informed, that there is not the least Foundation for any of the Reports concerning an approaching War with a neighbouring Kingdom.

It is said, some great Holders of Stock had a Hand in the raising and propagating the Reports concerning the above Subject. Their View in it may be guessed without much Sagacity; but that People should be so imposed on by them, as to sell their Stock under its Value, requires Depth of Wisdom to find out.

A great Magistrate of the City of London has received a Letter from the Earl of C. the Contents of which, having transpired, are said to be as follows: "That, in his Opinion, the Thanks of the Nation were due to the Livery of London, for again electing a Man so upright, independent, and able, to that high Office; and he thought they were due also to him, for accepting it at the present Crisis: That he himself had never opposed, but assisted the present Ministry, whilst they acted upon Constitutional Principles: That he had formed a Resolution never more to engage himself in public Business, but that the present alarming Situation of Affairs, and the Necessity of the Times, require it of him, and therefore he is determined to do every Thing in his Power to cooperate with his Lordship, in restoring the Peace and Liberties of the Nation."

We are informed, that there has been no extraordinary Board of Admiralty, that no Expresses have been sent to any of our Sea Ports, and that such Reports are only contrived by some ill-designing People, in order to depreciate the Value of the public Funds.

The Reports of several Armaments, propagated this Week, tending to alarm People of an approaching War with France, is only a Stock-jobbing Scheme of a French Duke, and his Agents here, to lower our Stocks to make an Advantage, which he has done to a great Amount.

The spirited Petition lately presented from an eminent City, has, it is said, been honoured with peculiar Marks of Distinction. "It is the Language of Liberty, yet the Language of Allegiance," said a most respectable Personage. "Why do not all the People of Great Britain speak the same?"

It is said the celebrated Dr. Musgrave has absolutely refused to sign the Devonshire Petition, although he was so great a Stickler in the promoting of it.

They write from Algiers, that the Populace were under great Apprehensions of a Bombardment from the joint Squadrons of the Danes and Russians, who were soon expected in the Mediterranean.

It was this Morning reported, that a certain Governor has declined ever to return any more to his former Department in America.

A Gentleman who arrived a few Days ago from Lisbon, says, it is the prevailing Opinion there, that a Rupture between Spain, and Portugal is unavoidable.

We are informed, that there is no Foundation for the Report in some of the Papers, of one of our East Indiamen having been lately taken by the French.

Nov. 28. An Evening Paper says, a Messenger arrived on Saturday at the Earl of Weymouth's Office from the Earl of Harcourt, our Ambassador at Paris: And it is confidently said, that these Dispatches bring Advice, that the Duke de Choiseuil, had, in Reply to our spirited Answer to the Remonstrances of the French Court which he did not expect, greatly lowered his Tone, saying, he was willing to abide by the Maritime Treaties subsisting between the two Crowns; but that if any of our marine Officers should have infringed upon them, it was expected they would be properly called to Account; and that in Answer to the Remonstrances carried over by his Excellency, relative to the formidable Armaments preparing at Brest and Toulon, the Duke de Choiseuil had declared, that no other Ships were fitting out than such as were necessary to relieve those whose Stations had expired in America and Asia.

The Reports of a French War that so universally prevailed last Week, and now appear to be without Foundation, were so artfully propagated, that they imposed upon some of the most experienced and judicious among the Underwriters in the Alley, many of whom would not sign a Policy of Insurance, without an Exception being made against a Capture by the French.

Nov. 30. A celebrated Preacher, last Sunday, at the West End of the Town, concluded his Sermon, which was upon the present national Grievances, in Words to the following Purport:--- "Let us rouze ourselves from this idle Notion of our Liberties being in Danger: Let us, whenever a Day of Fasting and Humiliation is appointed, pray to God to preserve our happy Constitution as it is at present, at the Zenith of Prosperity and Freedom, and fortify the Administration with Resolution to oppose the wicked Views of those, who, like Cataline, wish to aggrandize themselves by the Destruction of their Country."

A Gentleman of the Grenades has brought an Action for a Plea of Trespass against a Gentleman there, for illegally levying four and a Half per Cent. upon him, contrary to Act of Parliament. The above Affair is thought to be nearly as interesting to the Public as those of Mr. Hambden and Mr. Wilkes.

A Morning Paper says, the Public may be assured that there is not the least Probability of a War; and, that the Parliament will not be dissolved.

The Count de Vaux has published a Manifesto, in which free Leave has been given to all such Corsicans as chuse to abandon the Island, to embark for whatever Port they think proper; in Consequence of which, Letters from Leghorn mention, that great Numbers have arrived there, with an Intention to offer themselves to serve in the King of Sardinia's Army.

Some Letters from St. Petersburgh mention, that the Ottoman Porte had lately made some Overtures for a general Peace, which had occasioned the holding several Councils, the Result of which was not publicly known, when the above Letters were sent away.

Yesterday, at the breaking up of the Admiralty Board, an Express was sent off to Commodore Hood, on the New England Station.

Yesterday, as Pennell, one of the Pirates, was getting into the Cart at Newgate, to be carried to the Place of Execution, He hollowed out, "Wilkes and Liberty for ever!" He had a black and blue Cockade in his Hat.

Dec. 2. A Letter from Dublin, dated November 25, says, "On Thursday last the Bill for the Augmentation of the Forces on this Establishment, passed in an August Assembly by a great Majority."

Letters from Copenhagen mention, that amidst all the present violent Bickerings in Sweden, the Liberty of the Press continues still to be preserved there in its full Privileges.

By Advices received Yesterday from Vienna, we hear that the Grand Vizir had crossed the Danube with no more than 4000 or 5000 Men, being deserted by all the Rest of his Army, and had cut off a Detachment from the advanced Guard of the Russian Army, who were in Pursuit of him.

The late Earl of Uxbridge had the largest Stud of Horses of any Nobleman in Europe, keeping the amazing Number of 720 Horses and Mares, and never rode one of them.

Some Letters from Leghorn mention, it being currently reported there, that a certain Court was about to assist the Grand Signor with several armed Vessels, in order to oppose the Russian Squadron in the Mediterranean.

It is said, that this Morning an Express was sent off from the Admiralty Office, for the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Squadron in the Mediterranean.

Dec. 5. A Letter from Genoa, dated Nov. 9, mentions, that the Duke of Chablais, second Son of the King of Sardinia, is to command the Army destined for the Conquest of Genoa.

Letters from Berlin mention, that the French Ambassador had left the Court of Prussia, and that the Prussian Ambassador was arrived at Berlin from France.

A Letter from Dublin, dated Nov. 25, says, "I saw an Attempt (by bringing in a Privy Council Money-bill into our House) to deprive the Commons of their immemorial Privilege of having all Taxation Bills take their Rise with them. It was introduced by Mr. M------e unexpectedly; the Opposition was defeated by a Surprize, and it received a first Reading. He then moved, that it should receive a second Reading upon the following Day, but to no Purpose, for the Patriots having Time to rally, their Adversaries were beaten out of the Field."

We hear a great Personage is pregnant.

Dec. 7. Prince Lewis of Wolfenbuttle, Brother to Prince Ferdinand, and Brother-in-law to the King of Prussia, is made Vice Captain General of all the Dutch Troops.

It is said, by Advices from the Continent, that a Treaty of Marriage is on Foot, and will soon be consummated, betwixt the Emperor of Germany and a Daughter of the King of Sweden.

It was this Morning reported, that the Courts of France and Spain have disavowed, in the strongest Manner, any hostile Intentions towards Great Britain, but at the same Time have declared, that they cannot behold without Jealousy the Appearance of a formidable northern Fleet in the Mediterranean.

We are informed, that the List of Alterations in the Administration (mentioned in some of the Papers as intended to take Place immediately) is not authentic; and that no Changes in any of the great Offices of State are yet determined on.

Dec. 9. We are informed, there will be neither any Change in the Ministry, nor any Dissolution of Parliament, the ensuing Sessions.

We hear there will be two Lotteries next Year, upon an entire new Principle; the one to begin drawing the first Day of June, the other the first Day of November ensuing.

Yesterday a Number of Merchants in the America Trade met at the Smyrna Coffee-house, in St. James's-street, and from thence went together to wait on the Earl of Hillsborough, at his House in Hanover-square.

Letters from Smyrna and Scanderoon mention, that the Turks were in great Apprehensions of being attacked by the Russian Fleet, none of their Ports being in any Condition to withstand either a Descent or Bombardment from the Enemy.

Dec. 12. Letters from Spain advise, that his Catholic Majesty had just opened a Loan for Life Annuities at Nine per Cent.

Letters from Paris advise, that the French King has demanded a free Gift of thirty Millions from his Clergy; but that they hope to be able to moderate the Demand, as the largest free Gift has never yet exceeded twenty Millions.

The Tyrrel, Irwin, from Maryland for Lisbon, was lost Nov. 1, in a hard Gale, a little to the Southward of Oporto, and the People saved.

By a Letter received Yesterday from Paris, we have Advice, that all the Letters from England, that pass through their General Post-Office, are opened and inspected.

We are informed, that a Plan has been laid before the great Officers of State, for the further Reduction of the national Debt, without laying any additional Tax on the Subject, which is under Consideration.

A Letter from Portsmouth, dated Dec. 10, says, "His Majesty's Ship Eolus, Captain Bennett, from Gibraltar, is arrived here; by which Ship we hear, that seven Sail of Russian Men of War are arrived in the Mediterranean, viz. four at Gibraltar, and three at Mahone."

They write from Copenhagen, that two Men of War are upon the Point of sailing, with Troops and military Stores, for the Island of St. Croix, in the West-Indies.

Dec. 16. On Monday Mr. Wilkes will have exactly 4 months to remain in the King's Bench; the term of his imprisonment expiring on the 18th of April.

To-morrow, a great number of citizens will receive the sacrament, to qualify themselves----not for Heaven----but to be Common Councilmen.

The Mordoch, Captain Orr, from Virginia to Clyde, laden with upwards of 400 hogsheads of tobacco, is lost near Girvan, in Scotland. The people of Ayrshire immediately most inhumanly plundered the ship, rifling even the sailors chests.

December 26.

The following observation of the celebrated Addison is very applicable to the present times. "I have heard (says that excellent politician) of a country gentleman, who made a very long and melancholy complaint to the Duke of Buckingham, when he was in great power at Court, of several public grievances. After having given him a very patient hearing, my dear friend, says the Duke, this is but too true; but I have thought of an expedient which will set all things right, and that very soon. His country friend asked him what it was. You must know, says the Duke, there is a place of 500 l. a year fallen this very morning, which I intend to put you in possession of. The gentleman thanked his Grace, went away satisfied, and thought the nation the happiest under heaven during that whole ministry.---Can no such adequate employment be found for Junius?

Notwithstanding the complaint which generally prevails, that our trade is every where on the decline, and particularly in North-America, we are well informed, that in the year 1747, the net revenue of the customs did not amount to 900,000 l. and that this year it surpasses 2,800,000 l. sterling.

A letter from an English merchant at Constantinople, says, "the ruin of this mighty empire seems at length to be resolved on. The Grand Signor's situation is truly pitiable; surrounded by his ministers and flatterers, he is kept a perfect stranger to the transactions of his own army; and which is, indeed, almost ruined, through the want of military skill in the principal officers. Trade is the only things which, at present, runs in its right channel; how long it may continue to do so, Heaven only knows."

Letters arrived this day, by the Lisbon mail, mention an attempt having been made on the life of the King of Portugal, by shooting at him; and that the person, who fired at his Majesty, had been apprehended.

Letters from Vienna advise, that the Russians having greatly suffered for want of forage and provisions, in their expedition to Bender, it had been thought expedient to recal General Panin, in order that the whole army should go into winter cantonments.

A SOLILOQUY.

--------"I have deserved the Affections of my S-------s, and will rely upon them. Our Happiness is interwoven, is incorporated. God has joined them together, let no Mortal therefore dare to put them asunder. To exert P--------ve to its full Extent, would be to procure a Divorce. To exert it in all Cases, in which I have no immediate Concern, would be to forfeit what I value more than Life---the Confidence of future P---------s, and even the Confidence of future S-------s in general. It is both my Interest, and my Duty, to prevent the three Est---s from encroaching upon the Province of each other. With what Face, then, can I begin the Encroachment, or depart from the c---l Line which terminates the Sphere of my P--------ve? The Liberties taken with the present H---- of ------ deserve no Countenance, as they have no Foundation; general Censure is no Censure at all; it is a Tribute which often attends Desert. All P-----s have been blamed more or less, and till there be a Possibility of meeting with one that shall please all Parties, it would be in vain to struggle for it. The very Impossibility is a strong Proof of the flourishing State of Freedom. It is only in a State of Slavery, that all Subjects are of one Opinion. I should be poor indeed, if the Fortune which made me a ----, forbad me to have a Friend. Every one of my S------s is my Friend; and I am, and will be his! Those who are convinced, that the Establishment of the Family of --------- was necessary to the Support of their civil and religious Liberties, were my Friends, and must still be so. I desire no other Th---e, than the Hearts of my P----e; and whilst I secure that, shall fear no R--------n; from a Conviction, that the same Principles, which brought my A-------s to the C---n, will always be powerful enough to keep it in my F----y."

KINGSTON (in JAMAICA) December 23.

A Gentleman from Cuba, says, it was reported there, that General O'Riely having married in Old Spain, the Dutchess of Jamaica (so called there) by whom he had a Son: His Catholic Majesty has offered him both Men and Money, whenever he should think proper to make a Descent on that Island, to recover his Wife's Fortune, in Favour of his Son.

The Spanish Guarda Costas have taken at Rio de la Hache, the following Vessels, viz. two Sloops, Rutherford and Calves, from Jamaica, and two Schooners.

Nov. 23. Yesterday came down near the East End of the Island, two large Ships, supposed from the Number of Men and Guns, to be Spanish Men of War; a Pilot Boat belonging to Port Royal seeing them lie to, supposing they wanted to come in, came up, and put a Negro Pilot on Board the largest Ship; they immediately filled their Sails, and stood off, carrying away the Pilot.

We have Advice from the Musquito Shore, that a Conspiracy has been formed by the Spaniards, and Musquito Indians, and a Day fixed, to cut off the English Settlers on that Coast.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) January 2.

Our Advices from New-Orleans are, that Gen. O'Reily, with all the Troops under his Command, except about 500, left as a Garrison, were gone back to Cuba.

Feb. 1. Martial Law was proclaimed in December last, in Jamaica; it is said, under some Apprehensions from the enterprizing Disposition of the Spanish General O'Reily, who was returned to Havanna, from New-Orleans, and had left only 500 Troops there.

NEW-YORK, February 26.

The Halifax Packet, Captain Boulderson, with the Mail for Falmouth, sailed Yesterday Morning.

PHILADELPHIA, March 1,

On Saturday last the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province adjourned to the 14th of May next. During the Session the following Acts were passed, viz.

6. A Supplement to the Act entituled, "An Act to enable the Owners and Possessors of a certain Tract of Marsh and Meadow Land "therein described, situate in the County of Chester, to keep the Banks,

" Dams, Sluices and Floodgates in Repair, and to raise a Fund to " defray the Expence thereof."

7. A Supplement to the Act entituled, " An Act for bailing Prison- " ers, and about Imprisonment."

8. An ACT for repairing the Highway between Frankford Bridge, and the Bridge over Frankford Mill-Race.

9. An ACT to enable the Owners of Meadow Lands, on both Sides of Gunner's Creek, to construct, maintain, and keep up a Dam and Sluices, and to raise a Fund to defray the Expence thereof.

10. An ACT for the Relief of the languishing Prisoners in the Goals of the several Counties within this Province, with Respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons.

11. An ACT for appointing Commissioners to meet with Commissioners, who are or may be appointed, by the Legislatures of the neighbouring Colonies, to form and agree on a general Plan for the Regulation of the Indian Trade.

Extract of a Letter from London, December 6, 1769.

" I can assure you, from the very best Authority, that all the Petitions which have been circulating this Summer, and the Operations of the Supporters of the Bill of Rights, will end in Smoke and Vapour: That the Duke of Grafton, and the present Ministry, will stand their Ground: That the Parliament will not be dissolved: And that the Differences with the Colonies, will be settled in the best Manner that can be devised, consistent with the Dignity of Government, and the Supremacy of the Legislature over all the British Empire; for there only the whole Difficulty lies."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend in Philadelphia, dated November 29, 1769.

" A few Days ago, Mr. West, and myself, had a fine Ramble up the Thames, as far as Twitnam, which is fifteen Miles from Hyde Park Corner. We walked from Hammersmith to Kew Bridge, which we crossed over, and proceeded all the Way along the Thames, till we came upon Richmond Terrass, where we had a fine View of Sion House. Then we crossed, and came again upon the Middlesex Side, and here Language is too weak to describe the Sight. Mr. West confessed himself elevated beyond whatever he had been before. Hills, Palaces, the River itself, with Light and Shade finely intermingled, afforded the noblest Prospect my Eyes ever beheld. From hence we proceeded to Twitnam, where we dined at Mr. Hudson's House, the eminent Painter of the last Age, and Sir Joshua Reynolds's Master. This Gentleman entertained us for several Hours in shewing us his noble Collection of Paintings and Drawings, and then introduced us into Pope's Grotto, which was adjoining to his own Grounds. It would take an Hour to describe it. I [illegible] only observe to you, that at the further End of the Garden is an Obelisk to the Memory of Pope's Mother, round the Surbase of which is this Inscription, which I believe has not been mentioned by any of his Biographers, " Ah Editha! Matrum optima! Mulierum amantissima! Vale!"---Sir William Stanhope has enlarged the Dwelling-house, and built a new Grotto, at the Entrance of which is inscribed,

" The humble Roof, the Garden's scanty Line,
" Ill spoke the Genius of a Bard divine;
" But Fancy now displays a fairer Scope,
" And Stanhope's Plans unfold the Soul of Pope."

In short, tho' I have spent many an happy Hour upon the Banks of Schuylkill (my Heart still throbbing at the Remembrance that I have done so) yet the Pleasure, which I that Day felt upon the Thames, was as much superior to what I ever knew before, as the polished Harmony of the Swan of Thames is to the wild Oratory of an Indian Sachem. Poor Fellow!---How I pity you, that you was not of our Company!---Forgive me for thus tantalizing you, and consider what I have wrote, as the Overflowings of an Heart, that loves you with a Brother's Fondness."

On the 15th ult. arrived from Lisbon, the Brigantine Sally, Captain Benjamin Allison; having met with contrary Winds, and bad Weather, on his Passage thither, and falling in a little to the Northward of his Port, his Water and other Necessaries being nearly expended, put into Oporto for a Supply, and on his Arrival demanded a Franque, which he did not obtain till the fourth Day after, and then got Product. He then applied to Messieurs Clies, Babinton, and Company, Merchants there, for what Necessaries he might want, who appeared ready to serve him; but was soon informed by the Renters of the Customs, that whether he sold his Cargoe there or not, they would have their Duties; on which he applied to the Vice Consul, with whose Assistance, and the Gentlemen above mentioned, his Papers were laid before the Governor, and in three Days after got a Clearance for Departure; which as soon as the Renters found he had, they came on board, and demanded a Duty of about Two and a Half per Cent. on his whole Cargoe; which unreasonable Demand he refused to pay; but went with them to the Merchants, of whom they made the same Demand of said Duties, or Security for them, both which, the Merchants refused to give. They then said, they would go on board, and take their Value, which the Merchants and Vice Consul, who was then present, said they might do, if they thought proper, but must abide by the Consequences. Accordingly in the Afternoon they came oneboard, and without Ceremony went down into the Cabin, and bringing his Chest on Deck, demanded the Key of it, or they would break it open, which he then gave up, and after examining what it contained, they brought up his Bed-furniture, with every Thing they could find, even to a Piece of green Baize, that covered his Table, with his Watch, Shirts, and the whole of his Wearing Apparel, not leaving him a Rag, but what he had on his Back, and carried all off with them, an Inventory of which he had taken. He then went to Clies and Babinton, Gentlemen, who had hitherto, in the most obliging Manner, rendered him all the Service in their Power, and acquainting them with the Treatment he had met with, entered a Protest against said Renters, and those Gentlemen promised they would do every Thing in their Power, which he makes no Doubt they will, to get him redressed. And what rendered his Misfortunes the more aggravating was, that while he lay at Oporto, 3 or 4 Dutch Vessels put in there, in the very same Circumstances with himself, and by the Interposition of their Consul obtained a Clearance, without paying any Duties, and proceeded on their Voyage to Lisbon, while he was detained and harrassed by the Officers of the Customs. On his Arrival at Lisbon, he flattered himself with making the English Consul (through the Interest of Mayne and Company, to whom he was consigned) fully acquainted with the whole of the Treatment he met with at Oporto, during the nine Days they detained him there; to accomplish which, he made several Attempts, accompanied by Mr. Thomas Mayne, but to no Purpose, never being able to get a Conference with him; so that upon the whole, he got no Redress during his Stay, yet is persuaded the House of Mayne in Lisbon will assist the Gentlemen in Oporto, to get him Redress, and put a Stop to such Proceedings, if possible, for the future.----Are we to suppose, that the Petty-Officers of a little State, which we the other Day protected from Destruction, with our Blood and Treasure, are suffered at Discretion to pillage and rob our Vessels, and do every other Thing to clog and embarrass our Trade, while the first Officers of Government stand by, and approve of their Conduct? Is a British Subject reduced to such an abject State of Contempt? Or shall we suppose, that an English Consul, who is maintained at a national Expence to protect our Trade, has absolutely forgot the Duty of his Station, so as to suffer the greatest Outrages to be committed under his immediate Inspection, while he does not condescend to take Notice of the Sufferer, that he may obtain such Justice, as the Government would afford him, and such as the Subjects of another State enjoy? Which ever of these be the Case, it is high Time some Remedy was provided. This is not the Case of one Man, Thousands may soon be treated with the same Indignity.

Captain Osborne, from Lisbon, on the 2d ult. in Lat. 23:41, spoke the Brig Jenny, Captain Hunter, belonging to Glasgow, but last from Madeira, bound to New-York, out 19 Days, all well; and on the 13th, in Lat. 32:18, Long. 67:30, he spoke a Sloop from St. Martins for Piscataqua, out 12 Days.

Arrived from this Port. Captains Callender, Green, Montgomery, and Atkinson, at Lisbon; Haselton, at St. Ubes; and Captains Young, and Davidson, at Bristol.

A very remarkable Cause was lately determined in the Register's Court.---An infamous, but very artful Woman, having prevailed on an old Gentleman to marry her, soon acquired such an undue Influence over him, that she perswaded him to make his Will, and thereby to give her all his Estate, not before conveyed to her by Deeds of Gift, except a small Devise to each of his Children. In a short Time after making his Will, the old Gentleman died, and the Children disputed the Validity of the Will, as having been obtained by undue Influence. The Examination of Witnesses took up several Days. Afterwards a Day was appointed for hearing the Counsel on both Sides; and last Thursday the Court pronounced their Decree, whereby they set aside the Will, to the inexpressible Satisfaction of the Inhabitants of this City, who, in a very remarkable Manner, interested themselves on the Behalf of the injured Family.

Edward Tilghman, and John Dickinson, Esquires, were Counsel for the Children.

Bucks County, February 21, 1770.

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, will be expoſed to public ſale, on the 10th day of March next, at two o' clock in the afternoon, at the dwelling-houſe of Philip March, Inn-keeper, in the townſhip of New-Britain, a certain meſſuage, tenement, plantation and tract of land, ſituate in the aforeſaid townſhip, bounded by the county line, and land of Chriſtian Krawl, and others, containing about 85 acres, with the appurtenances, whereon is erected a good houſe, barn, ſtables, ſheds, and other improvements, conveniently ſituated, and is a noted and well-accuſtomed tavern, commonly called and known by the name of March's Tavern; late the property of the aforeſaid Philip March; ſeized, and taken in execution, and to be ſold by JOSEPH ELLICOTT, Sheriff. ‡

To be SOLD, by PUBLIC VENDUE,

On Monday, the 10th of this inſtant March, on the premiſes, if not diſpoſed of before at private ſale,

A LARGE and valuable tract of land, containing near 1500 acres, ſituated on the great road leading from New-Caſtle to Lancaſter, in Londonderry townſhip, Cheſter county, about 26 miles from Philadelphia, 15 from Wilmington, and 12 from Newport, very convenient to places of worſhip, and ſchools; malt-houſes, mills, &c. of which the moſt noted mill is Ellis Puſey's, which is within half a mile of the premiſes.

This is a fine, level, fertile piece of land, remarkably well watered and timbered, in a good neighbourhood, and capable of great improvements; which, with its vicinity to malt-houſes, and mills, where the produce may be ſold for the Philadelphia market price, renders it a very advantageous ſituation for a farmer. It is now divided into ſeven neat and convenient farms, which are under good fence (and will, for the conveniency of the purchaſers, be ſold ſeparately) being all of them well laid out, with a proper quantity of wood, cleared land, and meadow to each of them, good and convenient barns, log-houſes, ſtables, ſpring-houſes, &c. with large and remarkable fine bearing orchards of apples, and great plenty of peaches. The title is indiſputable, and quit-rent no more than One Shilling ſterling per hundred acres. The buyer, on paying one half the purchaſe-money down, may have reaſonable time allowed for the reſt, on giving good ſecurity for the ſame. Farther particulars, and conditions of ſale, will be made known, at the time and place of ſale; where a plan of the whole may be ſeen, which will be put up in the following order, viz.

Lot 1, containing about 380 acres, 150 of which cleared, and under good fence, having a convenient log-houſe upon it, with kitchen, cellar, barn, ſtables, ſpring-houſe, &c. On this place there are five different ſtreams of water.

Lot 2, containing 200 acres, about one half cleared, and under good fence, having a good log-houſe on it, which has juſt been repaired, with cellar, barn, ſtables, &c. now in the tenure of David Breckenrig.

Lot 3, contains about 180 acres, 120 of which cleared, and under good fence; on this place there are two houſes, barns, ſtables, &c. it having been lett to two people; part of it is now in the tenure of Andrew Mitchell.

Lot 4, containing 180 acres, about 70 of which is cleared, and under good fence. A branch of Whiteclay-Creek runs through this place; the improvements much the ſame as lot 2, borders on the great road leading to Newport, and in the tenure of William Corſby.

Lot 5, contains about 190 acres, near 100 of which are cleared, and under good fence, with improvements, much like thoſe before deſcribed, in the tenure of Ann Thompſon.

Lot 6, containing 110 acres, about 70 of which cleared, and under good fence, with a good and well accuſtomed joiner's ſhop on it, houſe, barn, ſtables, &c. in the tenure of Joſiah Allen.

Lot 7, containing about 190 acres, about 100 of which cleared, and under good fence, with a new barn on it, a log-houſe, ſtable, &c. ſituated on the great road, and in the tenure of Corſby and Mitchell, jun.

There is no leaſe on any of this land, the ſettlers being all tenants at will. The whole may be viewed till the time of ſale, and attendance will be given, from the 12th of March to that time, by the ſubſcriber, when any perſon chuſing to buy at private ſale, may be treated with on the premiſes.

‖ CHARLES ALLEN.

N. B. If it ſhould rain on the day appointed, the ſale to be put off, till the firſt fair day, and to begin at ten o' clock.

To be SOLD by the SUBSCRIBER,

PHILADELPHIA: Printed by DAVID HALL, and WILLIAM SELLERS, at the NEW PRINTING-OFFICE, near the Market.

NEW-YORK, February 19.

From the CRAFTSMAN, a Paper lately printed in England.

Extracts from Mr. HAMILTON's Speeches at the Trial of JOHN PETER ZENGER, of New-York, Printer.

THE m---------l Writers (says Mr. D'Anvers) were content, for some Time, with calling upon the secular Arm, and endeavouring to intimidate their Opponents with Menaces of Prosecutions, when they found themselves stung to the Quick, and had nothing else to say. But at last they have not scrupled to throw off the Mask, and speak out plain; for they not only assert, that the Press stands in Need of some immediate Check; but that the Liberty of it ought not to be reckoned amongst the Rights and Privileges of Englishmen, because it was not immediately claimed at the Revolution, nor particularly specified in the Bill of Rights; which was certainly defective in several other Particulars, as well as the Press; but this Defect was supplied towards the latter End of K. William's Reign, when the Licensing Act expired; for tho' an Attempt was made to revive it, and the Bill actually passed one House, such weighty and solid Reasons were offered against it by the other, that it was at last dropt. What therefore can be meant by such Doctrines as I have mentioned, but that all the Advocates for the Liberty of the Press, both antient and modern, were only a Pack of Knaves, Fools, or Madmen?

For this Reason, I am obliged to rise up once more, in Vindication of the Press, which concerns the Public much more than myself, or than all the Writers put together.-----But, at present, I shall only recommend an excellent little Tract, lately published upon this Subject; I mean, The Trial of John Peter Zenger, of New-York, Printer, &c. This poor Man was charged with printing and publishing a false, scandalous and seditious Libel, against the Governor and Administration of that Province, entituled, The New-York Weekly Journal; and having been harrassed, in an extrajudicial and arbitrary Manner, by some Persons in Power there, was at last brought upon his Trial, by Information; which, it seems, had found its Way into our Settlements abroad.-----But he had the Happiness to be tried by so honest a Jury, and was so gloriously defended by his Counsel, particularly Mr. Hamilton, an old and infirm Gentleman, who came from Philadelphia, on purpose to serve him, that he was acquitted in the most honourable Manner. I shall therefore give the Reader some Extracts from that Gentleman's Speeches.

Having, in several Parts of his Pleading, answered the common Arguments upon these Cases, with great Learning, Judgment and Probity, he comes at last to the Subject of Innuendoes, which he exposes, with a proper Mixture of Reasoning and Ridicule, in the following Manner.

"If a Libel is understood in the large and unlimited Sense, urged by Mr. Attorney, there is scarce a Writing I know, that may not be called a Libel; or scarce any Person safe from being called to Account, as a Libeller; for Moses, meek as he was, libelled Cain; and who is it, that hath not libelled the Devil? For, according to Mr. Attorney, it is no Justification to say one hath a bad Name. Echard hath libelled our good King William; Burnet hath libelled, among many others, King Charles, and King James, and Rapin hath libelled them all.-------How must a Man speak, or write, or what must he bear, read or sing; or when must he laugh, so as to be secure from being taken up as a Libeller?---- I sincerely believe, that were some Persons to go thro' the Streets of New-York now-a-days, and read Part of the Bible, if it was not known to be such, Mr. Attorney, with the Help of his Innuendoes, would easily turn it into a Libel.----As, for Instance, Isa. ix. 16. The Leaders of the People cause them to err; and they that are led by them, are destroyed.-----But should Mr, Attorney go about to make this a Libel, he would read it thus: The Leaders of the People (innuendo, the Governor and Council of New-York) cause them (innuendo, the People of this Province) to err; and they are destroyed (innuendo, are deceived into the Loss of their Liberty) which is the worst Kind of Destruction.---Or if some Persons should publicly repeat, in a Manner not pleasing to their Betters, the 10th and 11th Verses of the 56th Chapter of the same Book, there Mr. Attorney would have a large Field to display his Skill, in the artful Application of his Innuendoes. The Words are, His Watchmen are all blind; they are ignorant, &c. yea, they are greedy Dogs, that can never have enough. But to make them a Libel, there is, according to Mr. Attorney's Doctrine, no more wanting but the Aid of his Skill, in the right adapting his Innuendoes. As, for Instance, His Watchmen (innuendo, the Governor's Council and Assembly) are blind; they are ignorant (innuendo, will not see the dangerous Designs of his Excellency) yea, they (the Governor and Council, meaning) are greedy Dogs, which can never have enough (innuendo, enough of Riches and Power.) Such an Instance as this seems only fit to be laughed at; but I may appeal to Mr. Attorney himself, whether these are not at least equally proper to be applied to his Excellency, and his Ministers, as some of the Inferences and Innuendoes in his Information against my Client. Then if Mr. Attorney is at Liberty to come into Court, and file an Information in the King's Name, without Leave, who is secure, whom he is pleased to prosecute as a Libeller? And as the Crown Law is contended for in bad Times, there is no Remedy for the greatest Oppression of this Sort, even tho' the Party prosecuted is acquitted with Honour. And give me Leave to say, as great Men as any in Britain, have boldly asserted, that the Mode of prosecuting by Information (when a Grand Jury will not find Billa vera) is a national Grievance, and greatly inconsistent with that Freedom, which the Subjects of England enjoy in most other Cases. But if we are so unhappy as not to be able to ward off this Stroke of Power directly, yet let us take Care not to be cheated out of our Liberties, by Forms and Appearances; let us always be sure that the Charge in the Information is made out clearly, even beyond a Doubt; for tho' Matters in the Information may be called Form upon Trial, yet they may be, and often have been found to be Matters of Substance upon giving Judgment.

Power may justly be compared to a great River, which, while kept within its due Bounds, is both beautiful and useful; but when it overflows its Banks, it is then too impetuous to be stemmed; it bears down all before it, and brings Destruction and Desolation wherever it comes. If then this is the Nature of Power, let us at least do our Duty, and, like wise Men (who value Freedom) use our utmost Care to support Liberty, the only Bulwark against lawless Power, which in all Ages has sacrificed to its wild Lust, and boundless Ambition, the Blood of the best Men that ever lived.

I hope to be pardoned, Sir, for my Zeal upon this Occasion. It is an old and wise Caution, that when our Neighbour's House is on Fire, we ought to take Care of our own. For tho', blessed be God, I live in a Government, where Liberty is well understood, and freely enjoyed; yet Experience has shewn us all (I am sure it has me) that a bad Precedent in one Government, is soon set up for Authority in another; and therefore I cannot but think it mine, and every honest Man's Duty, that (while we pay all due Obedience to Men in Authority) we ought, at the same time, to be upon our Guard against Power, wherever we apprehend it may affect ourselves, or our Fellow Subjects.

I am truly very unequal to such an Undertaking, on many Accounts. You see I labour under the Weight of many Years, and am borne down with great Infirmities of Body; yet, old and weak as I am, I should think it my Duty, if required, to go to the utmost Part of the Land, where my Service could be of any Use, in assisting to quench the Flame of Prosecutions upon Informations, set on Foot by the Government, to deprive a People of the Right of remonstrating (and complaining too) of the arbitrary Attempts of Men in Power. Men, who injure and oppress the People under their Administration, provoke them to cry out and complain, and then make that very Complaint the Foundation for new Oppressions and Prosecutions. I wish I could say there were no Instances of this Kind. But to conclude; the Question before the Court and you, Gentlemen of the Jury, is not of small nor private Concern; it is not the Cause of a poor Printer, nor of New-York alone, which you are now trying. No! it may in its Consequence affect every Freeman, that lives under a British Government, on the Main of America. It is the best Cause; it is the Cause of Liberty; and I make no Doubt but your upright Conduct, this Day, will not only intitle you to the Love and Esteem of your Fellow Citizens; but every Man, who prefers Freedom to a Life of Slavery, will bless and honour you, as Men, who have baffled the Attempt of Tyranny; and by an impartial and uncorrupt Verdict, have laid a noble Foundation for securing to ourselves, our Posterity, and our Neighbours, that to which Nature, and the Laws of our Country, have given us a Right------the Liberty both of exposing and opposing arbitrary Power (in these Parts of the World at least) by speaking and writing the Truth."

This Speech, together with his other Pleadings, had such an Effect upon the Jury, that they took but little Time to consider of their Verdict, and brought in Mr. Zenger, Not Guilty; upon which there were three great Huzza's in the Hall, by a crouded Audience.

The Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Assistants of the City of New-York, had such a Sense of the publick Service done by Mr. Hamilton, in this Cause, that they presented him with the Freedom of their Corporation, in a Gold Box, of considerable Value; upon which were engraved the Arms of the City, and several Motto's, expressing the Circumstances of that Colony, and the great Services of Mr. Hamilton, which will redound to the immortal Honour of that learned Gentleman.

To the PRINTER of the NEW-YORK GAZETTE.

Please to give the following Extract of a Letter, just received, a Place in your next Monday's Paper, viz.

"When the News of Capt. M'DOUGALL's Imprisonment, was brought to a large Company of Gentlemen, in a neighbouring Colony, one of them instantly took Fire, and starting from his Chair, uttered himself in the following short animated and patriotic Speech.

"What, a Son of Liberty attach'd upon Liberty Ground! Heavens! Shall American Zeal be in Danger in America! Is there Guilt then in a sacred Jealousy for the Liberties of our Country! They are our Enemies that say so--Our Denial of the Parliament's Power to tax us, has been called Treason, by Miscreants; and that they may punish it as such, there are who want to try our Patriots at Westminster, and quarter them at Tyburn---A Libel do they call it---To-morrow it may be called Treason----And who knows but that some Men, even in this Country, may have it in their Hearts to send our Patriots from a Goal here to die as Traitors in England!

"Sons of Liberty awake to holy Vigilance.---Be suspicious of an Attack upon your Fellows in this Land.---Salvation under God must come from our Virtue and Courage.---Trust not in the Rich, they trust in their Wealth, and will sneak in an Hour of Distress: If the middle Class sleep, Perdition is just before us.

"What have we been contending for ever since the noble Virginians set the glorious Example?-----A Libel.------Curse on the Star Chamber Law.----Let every worthless Name give Way to the public Weal and Truth.---The Gentleman's Cause imprisoned at New-York, is the Cause of the whole Continent; and from this Moment, I devote my Fortune and my Life, to secure him fair Play. To which the whole Company agreed."

Messieurs HALL and SELLERS,

The giving the following Piece a Place in one of your future Papers, will oblige many of your Customers.

Their pious Sires, a better Lesson taught,
Chaste their Delights, and innocent in Thought.

To the FARMERS of NEW JERSEY.

GENTLEMEN,

IT afforded me sensible Pleasure to find, that my former Address, respecting Fox Hunting, in No. 2144 of this Paper, was so well received and approved of by you; and this Pleasure was greatly increased, on reading one of the Acts of Assembly, passed at the late Sessions at Burlington, to discover that my Sentiments were so similar with those of the Legislative Body, who, perceiving our old Hunting Law was too lax, to remedy those Grievances so loudly complained of by the Farmers in different Parts of the Province, took it into Consideration, and by a new Law have provided one so well adapted for the Purpose, that unless the Officers and Grand-Juries, are extremely defective in Duty, this jolly Fraternity must quickly give up the Ghost in the Jerseys. And as many of you may not have seen this Law, I presume the following Extract will be agreeable.

After re-enacting the Section inserted in my former Piece, it is added-----"And if such Offender or Offenders, are Non-resi-" dents of this Colony, he or they shall forfeit and pay Five Pounds, " &c. And if any Justice of the Peace, or other Officer, with-" in this Colony, coming to the Knowledge of any Offence against " this Act, and doth not prosecute the same to Effect within two " Months, shall forfeit and pay the Sum or Sums to which such " Offender was liable; and the Justices, at every Sessions, shall " give the Substance of this Law in Charge to the Grand Jury, " who shall make particular Inquiry, and present all Persons of-" fending against the same, whose Fines have not already been paid, " and on Conviction, said Justices shall set and impose the Fines " aforesaid, with Costs of Suit."

After such particular Pains taken by the Legislature to provide an effectual Remedy for our Grievances, surely not a Farmer in the Province will be so wanting to himself, as to refuse his Influence towards obtaining the End desired, or suffer the supercilious Sneers he may meet with, to retard his Duty; for the good Man, conscious that his Views are laudable, smiles on his Defamers, nor deigns them further Notice, than his Pity, Diversion, or Contempt; and the Pleasure the generous Mind receives in succouring Innocence, and Merit, and annoying their Opposites, is such, that when but a Boy, I would step my Foot out of the Way to avoid hurting the laborious Ant, and carefully brush the useful Bee off the Rose in my Hand; but the noxious Hornets, being a Nusance in the Creation, and withal very saucy and quarrelsome, was sure to receive a Stone, whenever they fell in my Way, and often have I been diverted, after disturbing their Kennel, to behold the Rage and Uproar of the puny Creatures.

The JERSEY FARMER.

New Jersey, Feb. 17, 1770.

LONDON, November 16.

Abstract of divers Letters from the East-Indies, dated March 12, 1769.

THE strong Fort of Kistnagery has been obliged to surrender for want of Provisions, and since that we have taken several others, and our Army is now within 30 Miles of Bangalore. Colonel Wood has joined Colonel Smith, and the two Gentlemen have been some Time together with battering Cannon, and all other Necessaries, except the grand Article, Provisions. Murrarow has also joined us with 4000 Horse. Some Time ago Heider Naig's People, by deceiving the Out-centry, telling him they belonged to Murrarow, entered the Camp in the Night, but the Centry happily finding out his Mistake, discharged the Alarm Gun, at the very Instant the Enemy were beginning to cut the Tent Ropes, which soon rouzed our Troops; and Murrarow, with great Presence of Mind, giving immediate Orders for his Men not to mount their Horses, but to fight on Foot, by these Means they killed and wounded about 300 of Heider Naig's People, besides taking upwards of 100 Horses. This Order of Murrarow's was a most admirable good one, for if his People had mounted, as the Affair happened in the Night, we should not have known one from the other, Heider Naig's Troops being all Horse. This Alarm, however, proved fatal to Capt. Gee, for as soon as he heard the Gun, he mounted his Horse, and rode directly to Murrarow's Tent, where being in the Dark, so that it could not be distinguished who he was, a few of Murrarow's Horse, that were mounted, soon cut him to Pieces, and thus we lost a most gallant young Officer.

"It is now currently reported, that we are going to make Peace with Heider, but upon what Terms I know not. If a Peace should take Place, I think it will be a great Disgrace to our Arms, that the English, who have made all India submit, should come to an Accommodation with an Usurper, who has not above 12,000 Horse, and dares not meet us in the Field. Heider, it is said, tells them, that he knows very well the English will take Bangalore, but that they shall never take him, as he can always make his Escape; and therefore, if they will not come to Terms with him, that he will give up the Mysore Country to the Murratos, and leave them to fight it out with us. But I must further inform you, that the Company is much distressed for Money, on which Account, it is said, they will be under a Necessity of making a Peace; however, this, between you and I, proceeds from nothing in the World else than the Want of capable Men to conduct our Affairs. If the Generals Lawrence or Coote had the Command of so many brave Men as we now have here, Heider would have been obliged to fly to the Mountains long ago.

"As Matters are, he sometimes continues amusing us with Proposals for a Peace; but these are made only in order to gain Time, that he may augment his Troops, and come upon us with the greater Violence. By Stratagems like these, he has been able to retake all the Forts which Col. Wood took from him; and by the wretched Mismanagement on our Part, we have lost a great Number of Officers, Seapoys, Arms, Ammunition, and Provisions, to our very great Distress. Heider has had two Engagements with Col. Wood, in which, I am sorry to say, he had rather the better of us, as he carried off our Baggage, with some Guns, Ammunition, Provisions, and a great Loss both of Officers and Men. It is to be observed, however, that Heider's Army has always been superior to the Colonel's; besides which, he has ever had the Address to amuse us with fighting, till his Horse could carry off our Baggage, and then he constantly retreated, leaving the Colonel to follow him as well as he could.

"Among the Forts taken by Heider are those of Curore and Erode. Capt. ------ had the Command of the latter; but instead of defending it, it is currently reported he sold it, and delivered it up to Heider. Both he and Lieut. R. are now in his Service. Had they defended the Place, all Heider's Forces could never have taken it, that Fort being so well situated and fortified by Nature.

"Captain Nixon, on his March to some Place, of which I now forget the Name, was attacked by a large Corps from Heider's Army, consisting both of Horse and Foot. The Captain, with his little Party, defended himself gallantly, but, after a long Engagement, was overpowered by Numbers, and obliged, with his Seapoys, to lay down their Arms, and submit to be made Prisoners of War. Lieut. -------, who, it is reported, is now an Officer in Heider's Army, is said to have behaved most scandalously in this Engagement, by putting his Handkerchief on the Point of his Sword, and waving it, as a Signal for the Enemy to come on.

"Great Discontents at present prevail among our Officers, on Account of their being badly served with Provisions; and great Complaints also against the Contractors, for the bad Bullocks they furnish to draw our Guns, those provided by them being abundantly too small and weak for the Purpose.

"Another Report is currently propagated here, that Col. ----- ordered a Sergeant, of experienced Bravery in several Actions, to be turned out of the Fort of Mulwaggle, and put a black Fellow to command in his Room, which latter gave up the Fort to Heider Naig's People. Capt. Galvert had put in the above Serjeant, with two Companies of his own Seapoys, to defend it, who would have maintained the Fort to the last, but this Killadare (the black Man) and his Seapoys, were so very ignorant of Military Affairs, that they scarce knew how to put a Flint into a Gun. Captain Calvert likewise, when the Seapoys had neither Pay nor Barter for three Months, bought them Rice with his own Money, at the Rate of 14 Seer for a Rupee; but when Call and Mackay went there, they ordered the black Fellow to be tied up, and have his Ears cut off, for selling so many Seer of Rice to the Rupee. Calvert, however, informed them that the black Man belonged to Major Fitzgerald, on which he was released, but with great Threatenings; and Mackay afterwards ordered the Rice to be delivered out to the Seapoys, at no more than eight Seer to the Rupee. This Manner of Proceeding has occasioned one Third of the Seapoys to desert from us to Heider, and the improper Bullocks the Contractors furnished have been, in a great Measure, the Occasion of our ill Successes. The Company allow, for every Bullock, 12 or 14 Rupees per Month; but these Contractors pay no more than five Rupees per Month for Cattle, which, in Comparison, are no better than so many Cats. Thus, it is said, they have gained by the Contract 7000 Pagodas each, besides ruining and destroying one of the finest Armies ever seen in India; whereas they might have made 2500 Pagodas each, and the Army been well supplied both with Provisions and good Bullocks, which in all Probability would have prevented our ill Success.

"Colonel Smith being now gone to the Camp, Mr. Andrews is to go and treat with Heider for Peace. If they can agree, I am much afraid it will be a bad one.

"That Renegado, the -------, has made upwards of 60,000 Rupees, besides being cloathed in the most sumptuous Manner. Another French Runaway, ------, Captain of the -------, who came over to us from Heider, is actually under Arrest for Cowardice, having refused to charge the Enemy, when ordered by Major Fitzgerald to do it.

"Since the above, Heider has sent a very handsome Letter to Colonel Smith, about making Peace with the English; but he says he will not treat with any Body else excepting the Colonel, styling all the rest the worst of Men.

"The following is now the last Account I have to send you. On the 3d of October, at 2 o' Clock in the Morning, an ineffectual Attempt was made to take Fort Mulwaggle by Scalade; in which Captain Hector Mackay was killed, and Captain Brooke wounded. On the 4th, Colonel Wood, with 460 Europeans, and 2300 Seapoys, attacked Heider, near the above mentioned Fort, at the Head of his whole Army, consisting of 14,000 Horse, 12,000 Match-lock Guns, and six Battalions of Seapoys. The Battle was more obstinately contested, than any ever fought since General Lawrence appeared on the Plains of Trichinapoli, the Field being alternately lost and won many Times. This Engagement began at 11 o' Clock in the Forenoon, and lasted till 5 in the Evening. Heider then retreated, leaving the Field covered with dead Bodies, among which, were 700 Horse, 3 Elephants, and 9 Camels. On our Side are killed, Captains Villers, and Fitzgerald, Ensign Heald, Ensign M'Donald, 17 Europeans, Rank and File, and 32 Seapoys. Wounded, Lieutenant Durand; Lieutenants Fire-workers, Smith, Holloway, and Regalt, with 63 Europeans, Rank and File, and 220 Seapoys. Our Guns are almost all disabled, and two even carried off by the Enemy; besides which, our Ammunition is nearly entirely expended, and our Flints broke to Pieces. On the 7th, Colonel Smith joined us with the whole Army, and they now lie encamped near Mulwaggle. Heider Naig is encamped between Gingee and Waldour."

A more particular List of the Killed, Wounded, Prisoners, &c.

Killed. Captains Gee, Mackay, and W. Fitzgerald; Ensigns Starkey, Bridgeman, and Kennedy; and Lieutenant Richardson.

Dead. Captains Walbanks, and Airey; Lieutenants Rosey, Verney, Brooks, Warren, and Melvil; with Ensigns Broughton, Grand, and Dillon.
